

Diocesan Forum Resources

You are invited to view the resources from the recent Diocesan Forum at www.parracatholic.org/forum2019.

Read the address from Bishop Vincent Long, materials prepared for the forum, data collated from the forum and images from the day. There will be further opportunities to engage in deanery and diocesan initiatives following the Forum as we continue to go out into the deep to become the community Christ calls us to be.

TWENTY SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - YR C

5TH & 6TH OCTOBER,
2019

Reflection by Dianne Bergant CSS

In our struggles to be faithful disciples, we frequently must endure periods when we feel abandoned by God. When we have been intent on serving God with genuine devotion, such times are particularly trying, for one would expect that God would not withdraw consolations. When this happens, the broken heart and the strained spirit cry out to God in complaint: How long? Why? We have all been worn down by life, tempted to give up, too weary to go on. Faith in God is a gift for which we pray. It enables us to accomplish marvellous feats; with it we can move mountains. As unprofitable servants, we do not earn it; we have no right to claim it as our own. We are the ones from whom faithful service will be expected. We will be sent to plough the fields and tend the sheep. We will be called to serve at table.

The faith that is ours has been mediated to us through the community. We have heard about God and about Jesus from others, from our parents and families, from our teachers and those who preach, from those with whom we work and play. Faith comes from God, but through the mediation of the community. Timothy received faith from his mother and grandmother. It was strengthened in him through the imposition of Paul's hands and through his preaching of the word of God. Furthermore, what Paul taught had first been handed down to him from those who preceded him.

Entrance Antiphon

Within your will, O Lord, all things are established, and there is none that can resist your will. For you have made all things, the heaven and the earth, and all that is held within the circle of heaven; you are the Lord of all.

Responsorial Psalm

(R.) If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
The word of the Lord stands for ever;
it is the word given to you, the Good News.
Alleluia!

Communion Antiphon

The Lord is good to those who hope in him,
to the soul that seeks him.

or

Though many, we are one bread, one body,
for we all partake of the one Bread and one Chalice.

NO MASS WILL TAKE PLACE ON THURSDAY 10TH OCTOBER
FRIDAY 11TH OCTOBER.

THERE WILL BE A COMMUNION SERVICE AT 9.10AM ON BOTH OF THOSE DAYS.

A Note from Lorraine Camilleri...

I start this note by saying just how very thankful I am on so many levels... I have been extremely blessed.
I have been very faithful and my God hasn't let me down. He has been with me every step of the way. God is good!

I want to thank my donor and their family. I will be grateful to them every day of my life.
What a gift to give!

I am nothing without my husband Michael and family...
and the love and support from dedicated friends, extended family and the parishioners of my parish, Corpus Christi.
I received so many heart felt words of wisdom and encouragement which gave me courage. It was extremely humbling and I thank you all.

I am doing very well. The new kidney and liver are working well and I am in good health. This has truly been a miracle.

Please continue the prayers and I look forward to seeing you all in mass in the near future.

God bless each of you always and again, thank you!
