

Third Sunday of Lent

Barry grew up in a tough environment. With the support of a program from PROJECT COMPASSION Caritas Australia's partner, Red Dust GO FURTHER TOGETHER Healing, Barry has overcome many of life's challenges. He is now an inspirational father to his four girls and a leader in his community.

Please donate to Project Compassion 2020 and help vulnerable people like Barry, so that they are empowered to assist members of their communities in Australia.

You can donate through Parish boxes and envelopes, by visiting www.caritas.org.au/projectcompassion or phoning 1800 024 413.

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT - YR A

14TH & 15TH MARCH, 2020

Reflection by Dianne Bergant CSS

All people thirst for meaning, but of what does that meaning consist? The people in the desert thirsted for water, but they misunderstood their thirst. The woman of Samaria thirsted. Her conversation with Jesus showed that she thirsted for understanding and insight as well as water. For what do we thirst in this world of such great excess and unmeasured need? Life has not become simpler with all of our advances. We still thirst for more - for the newest, the fastest and the best. How much is enough, and when do we cross the line into 'too much'?

The gospel readings for the scrutiny Sundays very clearly lay out the choices that are placed before the catechumens and the rest of the believing community as well. This Sunday it is between water that quenches thirst and water that does not. Jesus identifies himself as the source of water that guarantees eternal life. He places before the Samaritan woman a choice that requires a step of profound faith. She knows the thirst-quenching quality of the water from Jacob's well, but she is not acquainted with the water promised by this stranger who is also an enemy of her people. The choice is not an obvious one. A similar choice is placed before us. We know the demands of our culture and the circumstances of our lives. Are we able to acknowledge the sins of which we are guilty, recognise the grace that is being offered to us, and make the right choice?

Entrance Antiphon

My eyes are always on the Lord, for he rescues my feet from the snare. Turn to me and have mercy on me, for I am alone and poor.

or

When I prove my holiness among you, I will gather you from all the foreign lands; and I will pour clean water upon you and cleanse you from all your impurities, and I will give you a new spirit, says the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

(R.) If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Gospel Acclamation

Glory to you, Word of God, Lord Jesus Christ! Lord, you are truly the Saviour of the world; give me living water, that I may never thirst again. Glory to you, Word of God, Lord Jesus Christ!

Communion Antiphon

For anyone who drinks it, says the Lord, the water I shall give will become in him a spring welling up to eternal life.

KIND CORPUS CHRISTI-ANS – (KCC)

Yes, that's the brilliant and innovative name the Years 3, 4, 5 and 6 children put forward and voted for at our first Youth Group event held on 29th February 2020.

Thanks to all who participated in submitting other names which were also imaginative.

Twenty children spent the evening sharing pizza, getting to know each other, playing some games and reflecting on our theme which was: Preparing for Lent.

Parents were able to see their children present their Lenten promises at the end of the evening and children took home some ideas to share with their families and friends.

Thank you to Angie Saliba and Michael Aure for taking care of the hospitality and to Maryann Aure for her energetic icebreakers.

The feedback we received was very positive and everyone is looking forward to the March meeting.

For those wishing to attend, the details are as follows:

KCC will be held every 4th Saturday of the month (to line up with Corpus Christi 2749) and will end at approximately 9:00pm.

A donation of $5 per family will help us defray the costs of dinner and equipment as we go forward.

We want to thank everyone for their support of this venture.

The next KCC meeting will be after Mass on SATURDAY 28TH MARCH 2020.

We look forward to seeing everyone there.

Enquiries: Cathy Richmond 0435 221 472.
