TWENTY SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

4TH AND 5TH OCTOBER 2025

We, the people of Corpus Christi, seek to grow in living Christ-centred mission, sharing our gifts to foster welcome, justice and community in today's world.

A very warm welcome to anyone who is new to the parish.

From Parish Priest's Desk

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In the Gospel this Sunday (Luke 17:5–9), the apostles ask Jesus, "Increase our faith." Jesus responds with an imagery: "If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you." Faith, even if small, has power when it is genuine and lived out.

But Jesus does not stop there. He tells a parable about a servant who, after finishing his work in the field, continues to serve his master at table. The servant does not expect praise for doing what was commanded—he simply fulfills his duty. Here, Jesus reminds us that faith is not only about miracles or extraordinary signs, but even in the small ordinary things. True faith shows itself in humble obedience, in doing what God asks of us every single day.

Sometimes we want faith to be spectacular: moving mountains, changing situations overnight, solving all our problems. But Jesus teaches that faith is lived in ordinary acts of obedience—praying daily, forgiving those who hurt us, caring for our family, being honest at work, showing kindness to strangers, serving our parish.

A mustard seed is tiny, yet it grows into a great tree. In the same way, small daily acts of faithful obedience—listening to God's Word, attending Mass, helping the needy, speaking truth with love—grow into a deep, strong faith that transforms lives. And through the acts though ordinary, we will be able to bring in change in the lives of others and ours.

As disciples, we do not serve God to be praised or to be rewarded, but because it is our calling and our joy. Faith is both trusting in God and doing what He commands. As St. Teresa of Calcutta once said, "God has not called me to be successful; He has called me to be faithful."

This week, let us pray: "Lord, increase our faith." And let us show that faith in simple, daily obedience to God's will.

POPE LEO XIV'S PRAYER INTENTION FOR OCTOBER

Lord Jesus,

*You, who in diversity are one
and look lovingly at every person,
help us to recognize ourselves as brothers and sisters,
called to live, pray, work, and dream together.*

*We live in a world full of beauty,
but also wounded by deep divisions.
Sometimes religions, instead of uniting us,
become a cause of confrontation.*

*Give us your Spirit to purify our hearts,
so that we may recognize what unites us
and, from there, learn again how to listen and collaborate without destroying.*

*May the concrete examples of peace,
justice, and fraternity in religions
inspire us to believe that it is possible to live and work together, beyond our differences.
May religions not be used as weapons or walls,
but rather lived as bridges and prophecy:
making the dream of the common good credible,
accompanying life, sustaining hope,
and being the yeast of unity in a fragmented world.*

Amen.

The Living Word

Twenty Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time—Year C     4th and 5th September 2025

Entrance Antiphon

Cf Esther 4:17

Within your will, O Lord, all things are established,
and there is none that can resist your will.

For you have made all things, the heaven and the earth,
and all that is held within the circle of heaven;
you are the Lord of all.

First Reading

Habakkuk 1:2-3; 2:2-4

How long, Lord, am I to cry for help
while you will not listen;
to cry 'Oppression!' in your ear
and you will not save?
Why do you set injustice before me,
why do you look on where there is tyranny?

Outrage and violence, this is all I see,
all is contention, and discord flourishes.
Then the Lord answered and said,
'Write the vision down,
inscribe it on tablets
to be easily read,
since this vision is for its own time only:
eager for its own fulfilment, it does not deceive;
if it comes slowly, wait,
for come it will, without fail.
See how he flags, he whose soul is not at rights,
but the upright man will live by his faithfulness.'

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 94:1-2. 6-9. R. v.8

(R.) If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.
1. Come, ring out our joy to the Lord; hail the rock who saves us.
Let us come before him, giving thanks,
with songs let us hail the Lord. (R.)
2. Come in; let us bow and bend low; let us kneel before the God who made us for he is our God and we the people who belong to his pasture,
the flock that is led by his hand. (R.)
3. O that today you would listen to his voice!
'Harden not your hearts as at Meribah,
as on that day at Massah in the desert
when your fathers put me to the test;
when they tried me, though they saw my work.' (R.)

Second Reading

2 Timothy 1:6-8, 13-14

I am reminding you to fan into a flame
the gift that God gave you when I laid my hands on you. God's gift was not a spirit of timidity, but the Spirit of power, and love, and self-control. So you are never to be ashamed of witnessing to the Lord, or ashamed of me for being his prisoner;
but with me, bear the hardships for the sake of the Good News, relying on the power of God.

Keep as your pattern the sound teaching you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. You have been trusted to look after something precious; guard it with the help of the Holy Spirit who lives in us.

Gospel Acclamation

1 Peter 1:25

Alleluia, alleluia!
The word of the Lord stands for ever;
it is the word given to you, the Good News.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 17:5-10

The apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith.' The Lord replied, 'Were your faith the size of a mustard seed you could say to this mulberry tree, "Be uprooted and planted in the sea", and it would obey you.

'Which of you, with a servant ploughing or minding sheep, would say to him when he returned from the fields, "Come and have your meal immediately"? Would he not be more likely to say, "Get my supper laid; make yourself tidy and wait on me while I eat and drink. You can eat and drink
yourself afterwards"? Must he be grateful to the servant for doing what he was told? So with you: when you have done all you have been told to do, say, "We are merely servants: we have done no more than our duty."'

Communion Antiphon

The Lord is good to those who hope in him,
to the soul that seeks him.

REFLECTION by Dianne Bergant CSA

In our struggles to be faithful disciples, we frequently must endure periods when we feel abandoned by God. When we have been intent on serving God with genuine devotion, such times are particularly trying, for one would expect that God would not withdraw consolations.
When this happens, the broken heart and the strained spirit cry out to God in complaint: How long? Why? We have all been worn down by life, tempted to give up, too weary to go on.

Faith in God is a gift for which we pray. It enables us to accomplish marvellous feats; with it we can move mountains. As unprofitable servants, we do not earn it;
we have no right to claim it as our own.
We are the ones from whom faithful service will be expected. We will be sent to plough the fields and tend the sheep. We will be called to serve at table.

The faith that is ours has been mediated to us through the community. We have heard about God and about Jesus from others, from our parents and families,
from our teachers and those who preach,
from those with whom we work and play.
Faith comes from God, but through the mediation of the community. Timothy received faith from his mother and grandmother. It was strengthened in him through the imposition of Paul's hands and through his preaching of the word of God. Furthermore, what Paul taught had first been handed down to him from those who preceded him.

'Were your faith the size of a mustard seed you could say to this mulberry tree, "Be uprooted
and planted in the sea", and it would obey you.'

Luke 17:6

REFLECTION by Greg Sunter

Gospel Reflection

How much faith does one have to have? How much faith is enough? How is it possible to measure one person's faith against another?

When the disciples asked Jesus to increase their faith, what exactly were they asking of him? These fishermen and nobodies chosen as disciples by Jesus must surely have had moments of realisation that they were not the sorts of young men normally chosen by Rabbis to be disciples. They must have looked around at the disciples of other teachers and seen that, by comparison, they weren't really in the same league. So they ask Jesus to increase their faith. What they're saying is: make us more like the sorts of people we think we should be. Jesus counters their request by telling them that if they had faith the size of a tiny mustard seed they could accomplish great things. It's not a matter of how much faith one has but what they do with it. How much faith does it take to do great things? Jesus says that it only takes the tiniest scrap of faith.

Jesus follows up this statement by pointing out to the disciples that no matter how small the amount of faith, it carries with it a responsibility and duty to act upon it. One shouldn't be looking for acclaim and special treatment when one acts out of faith as that is simply what is expected. The gift of faith carries with it a duty to live that faith and act upon it.

Historical Context – Servants and Slaves

When speaking about doing what is expected, Jesus uses the image of a servant or slave. Whilst this image may be a difficult one for us, Jesus is simply using an image that would have held meaning to his audience. The sense of doing what is expected without anticipating acclaim was best captured in the time by talking about a servant or slave. This does not suggest that Jesus condoned the practice of slavery or servitude – they were just cultural norms at the time. When Jesus spoke about these matters it was only to ensure that slave and servants were treated fairly.

Scriptural context – A lesson for the disciples

For the last few months, in the Sunday gospel readings, we have been working our way through the second half of the gospel of Luke. From the end of chapter 9 onwards, the gospel charts the journey of Jesus towards Jerusalem. Throughout this journey, Jesus teaches his disciples and attempts to prepare them for his departure and their need to step up and take on his ministry. Today's passage is an example of this instruction to the disciples. Jesus makes clear that they are being called to give their lives to faith in service of others without expecting any return – just as Jesus does!

Gospel Focus – Faith

The disciples ask Jesus to increase their faith, but their question – and the reply given by Jesus – does not make clear the faith that they want increased. Is it their faith in God; their faith in themselves; or their faith in the people they are called to serve? The response by Jesus suggests that, in fact, it is faith in all these things. Faith in God and faith in self are intrinsically linked and Jesus makes plain to the disciples that this faith must find its expression in selfless service to others.

Questions for Adolescents

Q. Why might the disciples have asked Jesus to increase their faith?

Q. What is the message of Jesus' reply to them about faith the size of a mustard seed?

Q. When do you ever feel like the disciples: in need of more faith?

Q. When have you acted in service of someone else without expecting any reward?

Q. What opportunities exist for you to act out of faith without expectation?

Questions for Adults

Q. In what ways might the disciples have felt overwhelmed by the expectations of Jesus at times?

Q. Why is it impossible to 'measure' faith?

Q. How much faith is enough faith?

Q. Who are the 'people of faith' that you admire? What inspires you about them?

Learning moments

We sometimes develop an attitude that only great people can do great things. Create a gallery of 'Everyday People doing Extraordinary Things' that highlights people acting out of their faith to achieve remarkable things. Ensure that everyday people of your local community are featured in the gallery. The display might include a photo of the person and/or their work and a brief description of how their actions are based in faith. Identify creative and engaging ways in which this display could be used in the local community.

REFLECTION FOR YOUNG PEOPLE – by Lisa-Marie Calderone-Stewart

Jesus is telling the Apostles how small their faith actually is. If their faith were bigger – as big as the size of a tiny seed, for example – they could command trees to fly through the air and land in the sea! So obviously he must consider their faith to be very small indeed.

How about your faith? Do you think it is large or small? Why?

What influences affect your faith? Has any life experience of yours increased your faith? What happened?

Has any life experience hurt your faith and caused you to have doubts about God? What happened?

Not only does Jesus expect the Apostles to do great things with their faith, but to also see these miracles as 'no big deal' – as if they were to say: 'It was nothing. We were just doing our job.'

Have you ever done anything that impressed someone else, yet you yourself didn't think it was such a big deal? What was it that you did?

Have you ever seen someone do something that impressed you, yet to that person it was no big deal? What did that person do?

Do you believe that having more faith – in God, in yourself, in the power that comes from the Holy Spirit – could really cause miracles to occur? Why or why not?

Children's Worksheet

With even the smallest amount of faith we can achieve a lot. Write in the tree some good things that you can do this week which show how much you believe in Jesus.

Jesus says our faith can grow, like a mustard seed that grows into a tree. Draw a picture of yourself doing something that helps your faith in Jesus to grow.
