

CORPUS CHRISTI PARISH, CRANEBROOK, NSW

The Net

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - 31ST JANUARY AND 1ST FEBRUARY 2026

We, the people of Corpus Christi, seek to grow in living Christ-centred mission, sharing our gifts to foster welcome, justice and community in today's world.

A very warm welcome to anyone who is new to the parish.

First Reading

Zephaniah 2:3; 3:12-13

Seek the Lord
all you, the humble of the earth,
who obey his commands.
Seek integrity,
seek humility:
you may perhaps find shelter
on the day of the anger of the Lord.
In your midst I will leave a humble and lowly people, and those who are left in Israel will seek refuge in the name of the Lord.
They will do no wrong,
will tell no lies;
and the perjured tongue will no longer be found in their mouths.
But they will be able to graze and rest with no one to disturb them.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 145:7-10. R. Mt 5:3

(R.) Happy the poor in spirit;
the kingdom of heaven is theirs!
1. It is the Lord who keeps faith forever, who is just to those who are oppressed.
It is he who gives bread to the hungry,
the Lord, who sets prisoners free. (R.)
2. It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind, who raises up those who are bowed down,
the Lord, who protects the stranger and upholds the widow and orphan. (R.)
3. It is the Lord who loves the just but thwarts the path of the wicked.
The Lord will reign for ever,
Zion's God, from age to age. (R.)

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 1:26-31

Take yourselves, brothers, at the time when you were called: how many of you were wise in the ordinary sense of the word, how many were influential people, or came from noble families? No, it was to shame the wise that God chose what is foolish by human reckoning, and to shame what is strong that he chose what is weak by human reckoning; those whom the world thinks common and contemptible are the ones that God has chosen – those who are nothing at all to show up those who are everything. The human race has nothing to boast about to God, but you, God has made members of Christ Jesus and by God's doing he has become our wisdom, and our virtue, and our holiness, and our freedom. As scripture says: if anyone wants to boast, let him boast about the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Matthew 5:12

Alleluia, alleluia!
Rejoice and be glad;
Your reward will be great in heaven.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 5:1-12

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill.
There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. Then he began to speak. This is what he taught them:

'How happy are the poor in spirit:
theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Happy the gentle:
they shall have the earth for their heritage.

Happy those who mourn:
they shall be comforted.
Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right:
they shall be satisfied.

Happy the merciful:
they shall have mercy shown them.
Happy the pure in heart:
they shall see God.

Happy the peacemakers:
they shall be called sons of God.
Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right:
theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

'Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account.
Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.'

Heavenly Father,

as we begin a new school year, we entrust to your care all students, teachers, and parents within our parish and beyond. Bless students with a love of learning and a desire to grow in wisdom and faith.

Strengthen teachers with patience, dedication, and understanding as they carry out their important work. Grant parents guidance and peace as they support and encourage their children. May your presence be with them each day, and may this school year be lived in gratitude, service, and trust in you.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

"Blessed Are You..." (Matthew 5:1–12)

The readings of this Sunday invite us to rediscover the true meaning of happiness and greatness in God's kingdom. In the First Reading (Zephaniah 2:3; 3:12–13), the prophet calls us to seek the Lord in humility, reminding us that God delights in the lowly and the gentle, those who place their trust not in power or possessions but in Him alone. Saint Paul, in the Second Reading (1 Corinthians 1:26–31), echoes this truth by reminding the community that God often chooses what the world considers weak or insignificant to reveal His power and wisdom.

In the Gospel, Jesus proclaims the Beatitudes, which stand at the very heart of His teaching. At first glance, they may sound strange, even unrealistic: blessed are the poor, the meek, the merciful, the persecuted. Yet Jesus is redefining what it means to live a fulfilled and joyful life. True blessedness does not come from wealth, status, or success, but from a heart shaped by humility, compassion, purity, and a deep hunger for righteousness.

The Beatitudes are not merely beautiful sayings; they are a way of life. They challenge us to examine our daily choices and attitudes. Am I poor in spirit, aware of my need for God? Do I show mercy in my family, workplace, and parish? Do I strive to be a peacemaker in a world so often marked by division and conflict? When we live the Beatitudes, we become signs of God's kingdom in the midst of ordinary life.

This Sunday, Jesus invites us to walk the path He Himself walked—a path of love, self-giving, and trust in the Father. Jesus always was concerned about doing the will of the Father in His life. Though this path may not always be easy, it leads to a joy that the world cannot give. Let us pray for the grace to live the Beatitudes faithfully, so that through our lives others may encounter the true happiness found in Christ.

REFLECTION by Greg Sunter

Gospel Reflection

The gospel of Matthew is keen to cast Jesus in the role of the 'new Moses'. Moses was revered in Jewish history not only as the one who led the people out of Egypt, but even more importantly as the one who received the Ten Commandments from God. The first five books of the Bible, known to Jews as the Torah, or the Law, were accredited to Moses for a very long time. So Moses was seen as the one who received the Commandments from God and who also wrote down the Law of the people, the Torah. He was the Law-Giver for the Jewish people. When the gospel of Matthew portrays Jesus as the new Moses it emphasises the way in which Jesus sought to bring the Law of Moses to fulfilment and bring about a new understanding and appreciation of both the Law and God. Jesus introduced a new way of perceiving God; as a God of compassion and mercy, rather than the jealous, vengeful God that is often expressed in the Old Testament.

The Sermon on the Mount that begins with the Beatitudes comes out of this historical context. Jesus is trying to present a new interpretation of the right way to be in relationship with God; one that is not dominated by rules and regulations. The text is so familiar to us today that it is almost bland. However, at the time it must have been incredibly confronting. The attitudes and states of being that Jesus blesses were not the characteristics that were valued in the society of his time. Poverty, gentleness and mourning were not considered strong, desirable qualities. So, the picture Jesus paints of how to be in right relationship with God and others was confronting the standards and expectations of the time.

Historical Context – Purity

Purity and impurity was a major issue in 1st Century Jewish society. The Priests and Pharisees maintained that only pure adherence to the Law could make a person acceptable in God's eyes. Impurity came to be associated with physical disease and injury. Those with severe disease or disability were regarded as sinful and punished by God. Jesus' statement, 'Happy are the pure of heart', would have scandalised those who maintained that purity came through strict observance of Law. Jesus suggests that purity (and impurity) comes from within a person rather than from the outside – regardless of their observance of the Law.

Living the Gospel – Be-attitudes

One way to read the Beatitudes is that Jesus was commending and blessing the various people who found themselves in those sorts of conditions. Another, is as a list of qualities that all people should strive to exhibit. It's not just some people who happen to be economically poor who are blessed. Rather, we must all have a poverty of spirit – a humility about our need for God's merciful action in our lives. All are called to hunger and thirst for justice and all are called to be merciful. The Beatitudes are not a menu to select from, but rather an essential list of ingredients.

Gospel Focus – Covenant

The structure of the Beatitudes can be seen as yet another attempt by God to re-establish a covenant between Godself and the people. Throughout Jewish history, God called the people back into relationship and re-established God's covenant with them. Like all the previous versions of the covenant, the Beatitudes contain both a series of demands and a series of promises. It is a two-way deal. The first part of each Beatitude is a statement of what the people are called to do and the second part is God's promise of how they will be rewarded for their right action.

Questions for Adolescents

- Q. What reaction might the disciples have had when they heard Jesus preach the Beatitudes?
- Q. Where have you come across references to any of the Beatitudes in music, film or modern culture?
- Q. Why might the Beatitudes be one of the most famous and most quoted scripture texts?
- Q. Was Jesus trying to console and comfort the people or confront and challenge them?
- Q. Which Beatitude/s do you think you do well?

Questions for Adults

- Q. In what ways can the Beatitudes be seen in parallel with the Ten Commandments?
- Q. How do the Beatitudes provide a guide for living in right relationship with God and others?
- Q. How might you answer the claim that the Beatitudes just teach Christians to accept bad things?
- Q. How can the Beatitudes be misused?

Learning moments

Read a Biblical commentary or the notes in a good study version of the Bible to get a better understanding of the Beatitudes virtues that Jesus endorses.

Compare the Ten Commandments (Exodus 20) with the Beatitudes. What underlying beliefs and values are evident in the two codes? What might account for the different styles of the two codes?

Create a 'Beatitudes Gallery' with photos of people in your life who display each of the beatitudes and provide a commentary or explanation of how that person lives the particular Beatitude.

REFLECTION FOR YOUNG PEOPLE – by Lisa-Marie

Calderone-Stewart

The verses of today's Gospel are called the Beatitudes. Sometimes they are called the Be Attitudes because they tell us the kind of attitudes we need to develop and the way we need to be.

Do these Beatitudes sound like good news or bad news? Why? Who are the most peaceful and contented people you know? What do they have in common with the attitudes of the Beatitudes?

What are the attitudes of consumerism and materialism? How do commercials and ads encourage people to buy products? How are these attitudes different from those of the Beatitudes? What attitudes would make a better world? What attitudes would make a more selfish and self-centred world?

How could you rewrite the Beatitudes in language that most teenagers today would more easily understand?

For Children

SUNDAY 1ST OF FEBRUARY —FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME — YEAR A

FIRST READING

If you humbly obey the LORD,
then come and worship him.
If you do right and are humble,
perhaps you will be safe
on that day when the LORD turns loose his anger.
But I, the LORD, won't destroy any of your people who are truly humble
and turn to me for safety.
The people of Israel who survive will live right
and refuse to tell lies.
They will eat and rest
with nothing to fear.

SECOND READING:

My dear friends, remember what you were when God chose you. The people of this world didn't think that many of you were wise. Only a few of you were in places of power, and not many of you came from important families. But God chose the foolish things of this world to put the wise to shame. He chose the weak things of this world to put the powerful to shame. What the world thinks is worthless, useless, and nothing at all is what God has used to destroy what the world considers important. God did all this to keep anyone from bragging to him. You are God's children. He sent Christ Jesus to save us and to make us wise, acceptable, and holy. So if you want to brag, do what the Scriptures say and brag about the Lord.

GOSPEL READING

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up on the side of a mountain and sat down. Jesus' disciples gathered around him, and he taught them:

God blesses those people
who depend only on him.
They belong to the kingdom
of heaven!
God blesses those people
who grieve.
They will find comfort!
God blesses those people
who are humble.
The earth will belong
to them!
God blesses those people
who want to obey him[c],
more than to eat or drink.
They will be given
what they want!
God blesses those people
who are merciful.
They will be treated with mercy!
God blesses those people
whose hearts are pure.
They will see him!
God blesses those people
who make peace.
They will be called his children!
God blesses those people
who are treated badly for doing right.
They belong to the kingdom
of heaven.

God will bless you when people insult you, mistreat you, and tell all kinds of evil lies about you because of me. Be happy and excited! You will have a great reward in heaven. People did these same things to the prophets who lived long ago.

DISCUSSION STARTERS:

In today's gospel Jesus names many people who God blesses. Can you name some of these people?

What would a peacemaker do?

Why does God bless peacemakers?

How can we be peacemakers?

What do humble people do?

Why does God bless the humble?

How can we be more humble?

Children's Worksheet

Jesus told his disciples that even though people may be mean to you, as a follower of Christ you will have a great reward in heaven. What are some of the ways we can follow Christ?
